

Overview

- Collaborative sharing is paramount to quality improvement
- Centers who are high or low outliers are offered an opportunity to share their successes and barriers at collaborative meetings

Methods

- Centers who are a consistent outlier on a measure will be invited to present at collaborative meetings
- The surgeon, program manager, and MTQIP clinical reviewers can present their data, interventions, barriers, and query the membership